EXPOSURE LOADS – UMH ENERGISER PROVIDES PROTECTION AND ASSISTANCE

You can benefit from better health and less exposure to electro-magnetic radiation with the UMH ENERGISER at home and in the workplace!

OPTIMUM HELP IN TIMES OF ...

- Performance degradation, lack of energy, fatigue
- Concentration and immunodeficiency
- Depression, melancholy, sadness and fears
- Sleep, burn out, and much more

UMH ENERGY can optimise performance in all the mentioned problems and many others. The body's energy fields can be greatly increased, resulting in improved harmonization, revitalization and regeneration of the disturbed areas.

In balancing the meridians and chakras, stimulation of metabolism can be achieved in addition, since the collective performance of the individual's tasks comes through the increased energy.

HIGHLY EFFECTIVE PROTECTION AGAINST ...

- Electro-magnetic radiation, caused by high-frequency radiation fields, UMTS masts, Wi-Fi, Bluetooth, radar, TV, radio, radio stations, air traffic, etc.
- Mobile phones, cordless phones and cell phone towers
- Electro-magnetic interference fields around computers, printers, electrical equipment, etc.
- geopathic stress zones
- harmful negative energies in the environment

FURTHER AREAS OF PRACTICAL APPLICATION FOR ...

- Neutralization of harmful substances and re-energising of food
- Fruits and vegetables stay fresh longer and freed from negative contamination
- Also, the taste improves significantly
- Energising of drinks and water
- By placing an UMH ENERGISER 30 in a house or an apartment, the space's energy can be increased considerably.

The UMH ENERGY has many applications and revitalises your life.

ELECTRO-MAGNETIC RADIATION & RADIO WAVES – WHAT CAN WE DO?

CURRENT SITUATION

Electromagnetic-pollution and radio waves has increased enormously in recent years. Today, we measure values that exceed 500 to 1000 times those of 10 years ago.

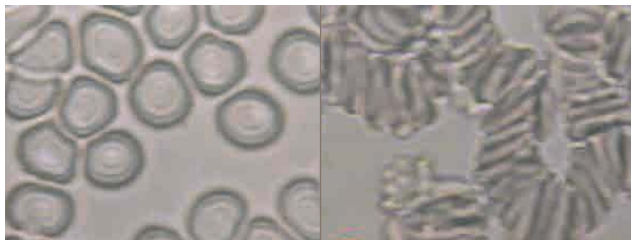

Assured knowledge is that left-polarized electromagnetic waves deprive us of energy; weaken the immune system, decrease the production of melatonin and disrupt the questionable cell communication.¹

Our bodies also communicate with electromagnetic signals however, they lie far below that of the technical fields.

Life is oscillation and consciousness. Depending on how they interact with vibrations and overlap, they act to benefit and enhance life or debilitate it.

Modern information and communication technology has become an integral part of society. No one wants to or can do without it. The prescribed limits are extremely high however, because they capture only the thermal effects (body heat) and thus, are very questionable from a holistic perspective.

It is now proven through countless studies, that the non-thermal (= biological) effects of high-frequency fields can cause massive health problems, stress, weakening of the immune system, degradation of EEG movements, as well as opening of the blood-brain barrier and even cancer.²

Scientists and doctors warn strongly in terms of our health against the serious long-term consequences, and even this at fields above 10 Microwatt/m².

First signs of potential exposure to electrical stress and geopathic stress are:

- Morning limb, and headache, migraine
- Tension, stress, fatigue, sleep problems
- Burn out, behavioural problems in children, depression³

To reduce the personal burden of electromagnetic fields, it is recommended to disable wireless routers when not in constant use, especially at night, as these frequencies interfere with cell metabolism massively.

DECT cordless phones pulse microwaves as does a base-transmitter day and night. They should be replaced by wired devices or changed for the latest standard of ECO-Dect, so that the base-transmitter radiates only during phone calls.

Look at the illustration below, with the high-frequency measurement of a mobile phone with an enormous increase in the measured value.

OPERATION – THE UMH ENERGISER AND THE SECRET OF ITS SUCCESS

SILICON

The UMH ENERGISER consists of silicon oxide (SiO_2), which is obtained from pure quartz. From an energy perspective silicon has very unusual properties. This mineral is known as an ideal transformer, uplifting energies and as a storage medium for information. It also has the same frequency basis as water and our cells. The earth's crust is not by coincidence from 70 % silicon.

FORM, MASS AND ENERGY TREATMENT

In nature, everything is based on energy, vibration and information. Observing the quantum physically acting laws associated with these enumerated principles, represents a fundamental factor for the quality and great effectiveness of these UMH products, in all areas.

In addition, the UMH ENERGISER by means of a special energetic treatment has been transformed into a very efficient accumulator of high energy fields. Many years of research made this possible through a two-stage energising process, with which was related superconductivity as with the orientation, to the geometrical structure of the silicon.

The treated silicon crystals thereby obtain a very high energy level. This energy field also has a strong potential for regeneration.

FUNCTIONAL ASPECTS OF THE UMH ENERGISER

Negativity, through environmental stresses such as electro-magnetic radiation, Wi-Fi, ELF waves (Haarp), geopathic stress zones, etc. Induced frequencies are absorbed by the silicon wafer, sounded out, ordered and re-radiated in perfect, beneficial structure.

This causes the cells to oscillate in a normal rhythm again. The original harmony in the cytoplasm is restored. A revitalization and regeneration of energy fields in the organs takes place.

THE SPECIFICS OF UMH ENERGISER

- The energisation is absolutely permanent and resistant to other loads.
- The material is heat and acid resistant. Therefore, it cannot be weakened or altered by any negative influences or fields.
- There is no physical extermination of harmful frequencies as with other manufacturers', but a transmutation of them, verified by many test reports.
Harmful rays are not only neutralized, but positively converted, i.e. the technically generated left polar waves are converted in to well-tolerated right-polar waves.

The UMH ENERGISER is the holistic quantum physics based response to today's environmental situation – often tested and recommended by scientists, doctors and therapists.

AREAS OF APPLICATION

- To protect against electro-pollution, mobile phone radiation and charges of any kind, the UMH ENERGISER is worn on a belt or chain at the level of the thymus, or around the solar plexus region.
- Also, the house mains supply can be harmonized by attaching a 3-cm disc on the main switch of the fuse box.
- The UMH ENERGISER can also be applied directly to the painful area of complaints.

AREAS OF APPLICATION

- The UMH mobile phone chip harmonises disturbing cell phone frequencies. Thereby energy level remains stable.
- Suitable for all mobile frequencies such as GSM, UMTS, Bluetooth, DECT, WiFi, baby monitors
- Optimal filtering is maintained in the area of location. Therefore people passing are not burdened unnecessarily by interfering frequencies. Simply attach to the device directly.

AREAS OF APPLICATION

- To neutralise computers, mobile phone transmitters, cordless phones, geopathic zones and all types of environmental influencees, the large UMH ENERGISER 18 or 30 should be placed centrally in the home or living area. Hereby a spherical all-round protection is achieved.
- To neutralise and energize food, they should be left standing on the accumulator at least 3 hours.
- For optimisation in the bedroom or workplace, during car trips or by loss of energy and the relief of pain, lay or sit directly on the (18 cm) UMH Energiser. According to studies all meridians are thereby harmonized again.
- In ponds and pools the UMH ENERGISER 30 reduced the growth of algae. For this purpose, this same product can be placed directly into the water and combined with the UMH pool device.

RESULTS & REPORTS – UMH ENERGISER REPEATED STUDIES

Testing by doctors and scientists

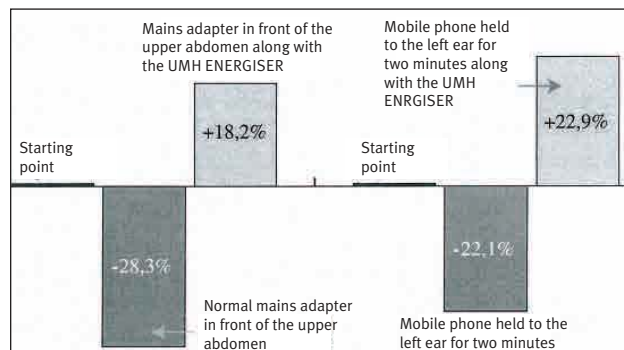

The reports carried out with the „Prognosis Diagnostic System“, the “Imedis full expert system”, the “FKM method”, the “Oberon System”, the “Quantum Fractal Analysis” and the “Dr. Voll measurement” demonstrate the excellent conversion of low- and high-frequency radiation fields in positive energy and an enormous charge and harmonisation of all meridians of the subjects.

In addition, to the improved energy quality of food and water it is attested. Any food that we eat, must also be integrated into the energy of our body. A high energy food density promotes this process more significantly.

Below are a selection of the results; more detailed energy medical reports and test graphics, and impressive reports from users can be read at “www.umh-umwelttechnologien.at”

Prognos System Investigation of Dr.(med) Deopp

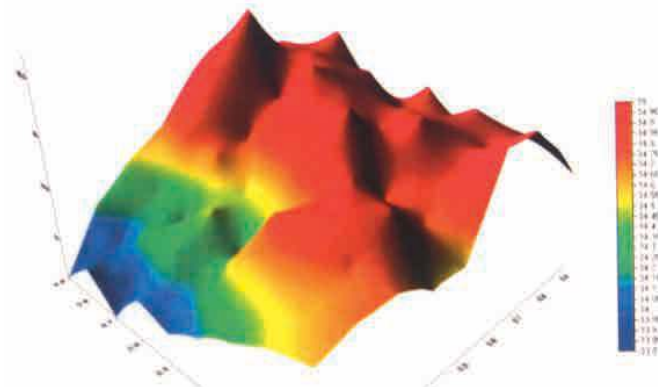

Dr. Deopp attested this in his report: “The UMH ENERGISER is very suitable for the protection against electro-smog, because it is equally effective against low- and high-frequency loads. The UMH ENERGISER not only neutralises these, but converts them into constructive waves.”

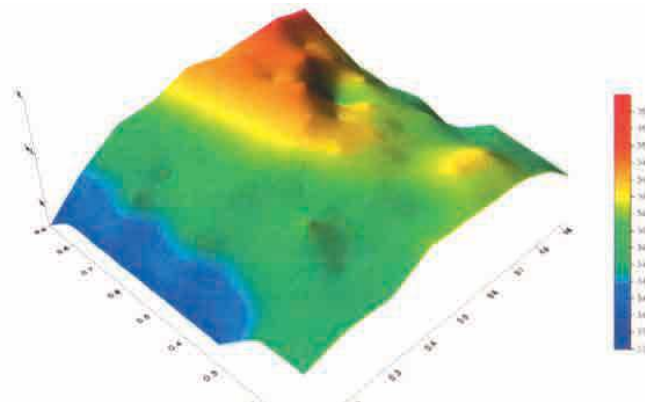

Changes in the overall balance (mean measured over 10 people)

FKM Report of the IIREC Institute Dr. Medinger

In this study of the UMH ENERGISER 18 and 7 the magnetic-field-balancing effect was confirmed as specified in the datasheet for the working radius of the discs. The neutralization of the athermal component of mobile phone and wireless radiation have been clearly identified at an office workstation.

Analysis of the protective function using the Imedis-Voll Expert System by Dr. rer. nat. (see below) Kilibaeva

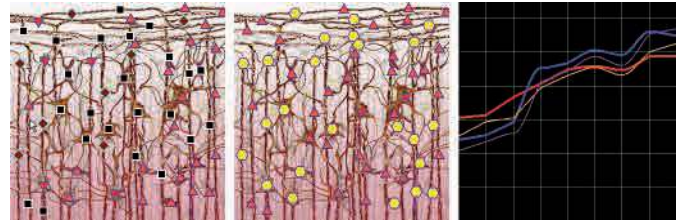

Study with 16 subjects on the compensatory effect of the UMH Energiser (3, 4.5, 7 cm) in UMTS and GSM telephone calls:

In summary, it is stated that: “The UMH ENERGISER provides reliable protection from harmful cell phone radiation and also from other interfering radiation, as has been shown in other tests. He could confirm the energy neutralization of Dect phone and wireless radiation with measurements, proving clearly both the charging of food and meridian balancing among the subjects.”

Investigation with OBERON test-system

Observed with OBERON conducted investigations confirming the extremely high compensatory effect of the UMH ENERGISER discs. The following image shows a strong improvement to the energy positioning in the cranial nerves of the subjects tested in the use of the UMH Energiser 4.5cm. The reduction of pathological range by 100% was demonstrated and also, the 83% strength gain of the compensatory response.

REPORTS FROM USERS

Allergies, fatigue, malaise, pain of all kinds, sleep and concentration problems disappearing. Also, improvement of mental disposition and a strengthening of the nervous and immune systems have been identified. Even a positive influence on the bio-rhythm, the ability to concentrate, to clearer thoughts and of relaxed work were found.
